

Housing

BBC News Comparison of Bristol House Prices with Greater London

	Greater London	Bristol
Average Cost	£358,500	£203,958
Flat	£307,063	£174,239
Terraced	£377,503	£194,405
Semi-detached	£408,264	£230,538
Detached	£754,485	£367,070
Change in last quarter	0.6%	-6.5%
Change in last year	5.5%	4.9%

Source: Land Registry of England and Wales. Figures for England and Wales are for the period January to March 2008.

Bristol is one of the most popular cities to live in, a survey has discovered.

“Home removal website ReallyMoving.com found that people living in Bristol were more likely to move within their postcode area than leave the city.

In fact Bristol has proved the second best in the country at retaining residents, coming just behind Edinburgh and ahead of Sheffield”

Western Daily Press, 04/03/2008